Asia Pacific Centre for Arbitration & Mediation (APCAM) is a landmark initiative to create an international ADR centre by institutions from 8 countries in the Asia Pacific region. APCAM caters the requirement of international and cross-border business disputes, having APCAM Centres in Australia, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Nepal, South Korea and Thailand.

APCAM's vision is to assist the international business community to resolve their international and cross-border disputes under a single set of mediation and arbitration rules and with a uniform fee structure, and to create a single panel of international mediators and arbitrators, with uniform accreditation, so as to establish the best-standards in professionalism and credibility, so that the business community gets unbiased professionals that resolve disputes in a timely manner, and thereby create a better business environment in the region. Setting the world of dispute resolution in a different path!

APCAM proudly announces its first International ADR Summit in India at New Delhi during 6th and 7th of May 2023.

APCAM Summit, an annual flagship conference, is hosted by all the APCAM Centres from India, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Australia, Indonesia, Thailand, South Korea and Nepal. The Summit will discuss positioning Asia-Pacific in the current ADR global environment, the impact of growing cross-border business within the Asia-Pacific region and the increased importance of institutional and professional cooperation and integration for growth. APCAM believes that the quality of ADR practice in the region will advance through the free exchange of ideas, innovation and in empowering exploration of the cultural, ethnic, and social diversity.

The Summit is conducted jointly by APCAM Centres in 8 countries, which will gather the top ADR institutions from the region, Arbitrators, Mediators, ADR professionals, Judges, Legal experts, In-house counsel, International Chambers, Government leaders and ADR Users, to discuss, network and deliberate the latest trends and developments of disputes, its resolutions and enforcement trends.

During the Summit, APCAM will also be announcing the "APCAM International ADR Awards", which is intended to popularise and implement high standards of professionalism among ADR professionals, academics, users and researchers and to develop and consistently upgrade the quality of ADR. The Awards will honour all significant contributions working towards ensuring quality ADR services and for path-breaking innovations and partnerships in the Asia Pacific region.

Why APCAM International ADR Summit?

- The APCAM International ADR Summit is an unmissable rendezvous for ADR Professionals, Arbitrators, Mediators, Judges, Legal professionals, General Counsel, academicians, business houses doing domestic and cross-border trade and commerce, Business Directors/Managers and Chambers of Commerce and Industries.
- It provides participants a unique opportunity to explore and approach conflict resolution from a global mindset. The Summit is designed to attract a comprehensive discussion on promoting the use of mediation, arbitration and other forms of alternative dispute resolution. The inspiring sessions hosted by partnering institutions and other international professionals will create the perfect atmosphere for thoughtful debates and discussions, creating an enriching experience for participants as it will eventually facilitate them in increasing their existing framework of knowledge and expand their horizon beyond general approach. The Summit will also be an opportunity to unveil the latest trends, innovations and developments and serve as a prime academic platform for the exchange of ideas and research outcome pertaining to the wide-range of ADR trends and options and create quality relationships and network with peers from around the world.

Summit Goals

- ▶ To connect ADR professionals, Arbitrators, Mediators, Legal professionals and business managers with the resources and tools needed to develop or enhance the effectiveness of their dispute resolution processes and build confidence and capacity to increase cross-border trade and commerce.
- ▶ To promote and build Asia-Pacific region as an attractive ADR hub and to increase professionalism among the ADR institutions and to inspire confidence to business houses to choose institutional ADR options.

Why to Partner?

The APCAM Summit is hosted by the APCAM Centres from 8 countries in the Asia Pacific region, which will be a confluence of the ADR, legal and business community in the region, bringing in experts, professionals, academics and speakers from all over the globe. The Summit has the capacity to stimulate real, positive changes in how commercial disputes will be handled in the Asia Pacific region, enabling sponsors to show their leadership and engagement in improving access to justice and the resolution of commercial dispute resolution in cross-border disputes. APCAM Summit is an effective branding opportunity both locally and globally.

Sponsoring APCAM Summit is essentially about leadership in promoting access to justice and providing greater informed choices to disputants involved in international commercial disputes. It will also leverage their reputation and know-how in cutting-edge cost-saving, value-added, systemic and thoughtful approaches to dispute resolution processes. The Summit will give Sponsors a highly visible platform in the eyes of professionals, users and key stakeholders in the Asia-Pacific countries.
